Since 1990, Ndlovu has been a beacon of authentic safari hospitality, inviting guests to immerse themselves in the wonders of nature, on the banks of the Okavango River

Embark on exhilarating game drives to nearby parks, where encounters with a rich tapestry of wildlife await. From majestic elephants to elusive big cats, every moment promises an unforgettable safari experience.

During the rainy season, Ndlovu undergoes a remarkable transformation and becomes an island sanctuary. As the Okavango River swells and spills onto the surrounding floodplains, the natural spectacle unfolds as the Okavango Delta reaches its peak capacity, creating a mesmerizing landscape of water and wilderness.

Amidst all of this, Ndlovu Safari Lodge stands as a beacon, providing an enchanting backdrop for unparalleled safari adventures.

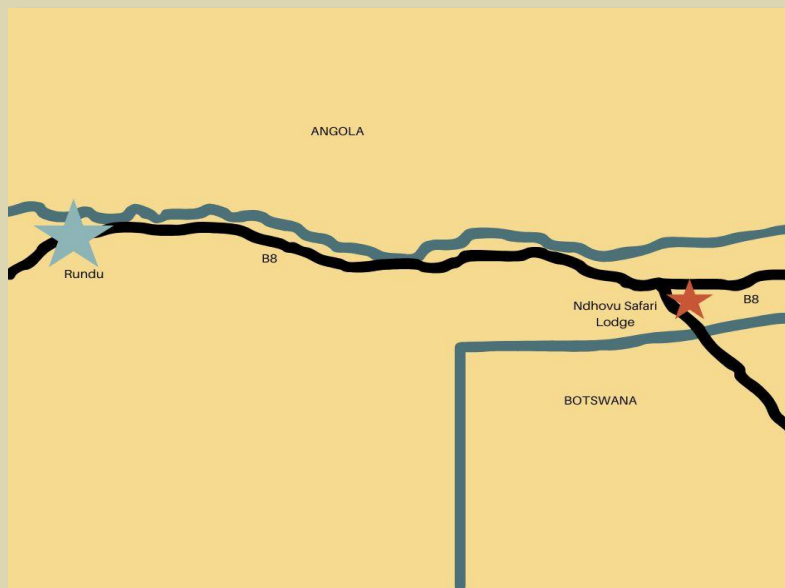

Discover the magic of Ndlovu Safari Lodge, where adventure and luxury intertwine to create memories that will last a lifetime.

DRIVING DIRECTIONS

Ndhovu Safari Lodge is situated in the north-east of Namibia, in the Zambezi Strip, on the banks of the Okavango River.

From Windhoek:

Travel along the B1 and subsequently the B8 until you reach Rundu in the Zambezi region. Once in Rundu, continue the directions provided below. Driving time to Ndhovu about 10 hours.

From Rundu:

Proceed eastward on the B8 for 200 km, then upon reaching Divundu, make a right turn (heading south) onto the C48 for 20 km. At the designated signpost for Ndhovu, make a left turn and continue for 2km following the elephant markers. Driving time about 2.5 hrs.

From Katima Mulilo:

Head westward along the B8 for approximately 315 km. Upon crossing the Okavango River, make a left turn (heading south) onto the C48 and continue for 20 km. Then, at the designated sign indicating Ndhovu, make a left turn and proceed for 2km, following the elephant signposts.
